Through careful and judicious cleaning, the present owner has been able to remove the oxide on the obverse, and has thus greatly improved the coin. Only five examples of this great rarity are known, three of which are preserved in the London, Paris and Berlin Museums. The fourth, formerly in the Rhousopoulos collection, was sold at Munich in May, 1905 (see Catalogue, pl. XXIV, 1965) for 5,000 Marks.
